

The YELLOW Preposition Stick Man

This will be some noun or verb in the sentence.

If this word is RED, the prepositional phrase takes an ORANGE link.

If this word is BLUE, the prepositional phrase takes a PURPLE link.

This is the OBJECT of the preposition.

Every YELLOW prepositional phrase must end with a BLUE or a LIGHT BLUE object.

The YELLOW preposition relates its BLUE object to some other word in the sentence.